

I believe every decision I make matters, help me listen only to the voice of God as I make them.

1. Spiritually speaking, being tempted, tested, and going through a trial can all be related to the _____ event or circumstances.

Matthew 4:1 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the Devil. (footnote: Greek word tempted can also mean tested.)

The Holy Spirit led Jesus into the desert, so that the devil could test him.
(Contemporary English Version – CEV)

- a. Satan's perspective: he was tempting Jesus – hoping he would _____.
- b. God's perspective: Jesus passed a _____ – proving he was a sinless.

I Cor 10:13 No temptation has overtaken you except what is common to mankind. And God is faithful; he will not let you be tempted beyond what you can bear. But when you are tempted, he will also provide a way out so that you can endure it. (footnote: The Greek for temptation and tempted can also mean testing and tested.)

- a. The promise is to _____ a way for you to pass the test and overcome the temptation. They are both based in the same reality.
- b. The end result determines if it should be called a test or a temptation.

James 1:2-3 Consider it pure joy, my brothers and sisters, whenever you face trials of many kinds, because you know that the testing of your faith produces perseverance.

- a. Every time you pass a test, you _____ your spiritual strength.
- b. Every time you overcome temptation, you increase your spiritual strength.

James 1:4-5 Let perseverance finish its work so that you may be mature and complete, not lacking anything. If any of you lacks wisdom, you should ask God, who gives generously to all without finding fault, and it will be given to you.

- a. When you ask for wisdom, so that you can pass the test/overcome temptation, God _____ to provide it.
- b. As always, it's up to _____ whether we use this wisdom or not.

Practical Application:

1. _____ decision you make will either be obedience, wisdom, or failure.
 - a. Grey area decisions, made in _____ and _____, honor the God who have you this freedom and wisdom.
 - b. Black and white decisions, made in _____, honor the God who instructed you.
 - c. Intentionally choosing the unwise, or immoral path, _____ God and gives Satan a _____ in your life. (Ephesians 4:27)
2. I must understand/embrace the idea that _____ decision will either honor or dishonor God.
3. I must also understand, that the _____ I take in making the decision, does the same.
 - a. Getting lucky does not honor God – I have to show my work.
 - b. The ends does _____ always justify the means.
4. When I find myself in a troubling, stressful, traumatic, or dangerous situation:
 - a. _____ is calling for me to use my knowledge of the Bible, His character, His commands, His promises, and His Holy Spirit to make good and wise choices.
 - b. _____ is calling for me (using lies and deception) to use culture, selfishness, idolatry, societal pressures, pragmatism, and unproved lies to make bad and unwise choices.
 - c. In almost every situation involving a choice, _____ will have the opportunity to prove my faith in God to myself, or to discourage my faith and damage my witness.
 - d. If I prove my faith – I made it a _____.

If I damage my witness – I made it a _____.
5. My job as a believer, is to listen carefully to the voice of God, and ignore the many voices of Satan, as I make decisions. I must apply this principal in both the big, small, important, and mundane.

I believe every decision I make matters, help me listen only to your voice, God, as I make them!
