

The Gospel of Luke

Hope and Joy in Seeing the Resurrected Christ

Luke 24:13-35

1. The Dejected Travelers (Lk. 24:13-24)
2. The Oblivious Companion (Lk. 24:18)
3. An Illuminating Conversation (Lk. 24:25-27, 32)
4. A Revealing Meal (Lk. 24:28-32)
5. The Power of Seeing the Resurrected Christ
 - A. Cleopas and Companion (Lk. 24:31-35)
 - B. Mary Magdalene (Jn. 20:11-18)
 - C. The Ten and Others (Lk. 24:36-43; Jn. 20:19-23)
 - D. Peter (Lk. 24:34; cf. Lk. 22:31-32)
 - E. Thomas (Jn. 20:24-29)
 - F. Many Others (1 Cor. 15:6-7; cf. Ac. 12:17)
 - G. Paul (Acts 9:1-9; 1 Cor. 15:8)
6. The Effect of Seeing the Resurrected Christ
 - A. From Dejected to Joyful (Lk. 24:41)
 - B. From Fearful to Fearless (Jn. 20:19; Lk. 24:53)
7. The Importance of Eye-Witnesses
 - A. An Age Old Standard (Dt. 17:6; 19:15; cf. Mt. 16:18)
 - B. A Confirmation of the Unbelievable (1 Co. 15:5-8)
8. The Indispensable Nature of the Old Testament
 - A. If you do not believe the Old Testament, the Resurrection will not convince you (Lk. 16:27-31)
 - B. The Old Testament Points to the Death and Resurrection of Jesus (Lk. 24:25-26)