BEESON AND HUNSICKER
THE HIDDEN PRICE OF GREATNESS

What we may not realise is how large a collection of little disappointments we're accumulating—things we don't want to deal with, attitudes we think we shouldn't have, doubts about the goodness of God.

BEESON AND HUNSICKER
THE HIDDEN PRICE OF GREATNESS

The Lord doesn't want us weighed down with all that, so he allows the heat to be turned up in life's pressure cooker. He carefully watches the gauge, knowing exactly how much we can bear.

THE HIDDEN PRICE OF GREATNESS

As the pot boils, some poisonous gases start to bubble up. Reeling from the foul odor that permeates our lives, we cry, ‘Where did all this come from?’ Sometimes we discover we’ve been building a temple to God on a toxic waste dump of unresolved hurt.

THE HIDDEN PRICE OF GREATNESS

Then the Holy Spirit makes himself known to us as the refining fire rather than the gentle dove. He burns away the stench of rebellion, unforgiveness, pride—whatever is polluting our lives. He cauterizes the wound amid our screams. Finally he pours in the oil of healing a restores our joy.”
