

FAMILY GUIDE

WK 8

Read this...

Everything we have in life is a blessing that has been given to us by God. He is the owner of it and we are the stewards. A steward is someone who takes care of something on behalf of the owner. Since God is the owner of everything, including all of our money and stuff, we should make every effort to be good stewards and care well for what God has given us. When we are good stewards of our money, we are better able to be generous. Generosity is learning to take what I have and use it to help someone in need! We should want to be generous so that we can show the love of Christ to those around us!

Discussion

Take some time to talk as a family about this week's topic. Spiritual conversations go a long way towards reinforcing what was learned and helping your family begin to live based on the truth.

- Who is the true owner of everything we have?
- What is a steward?
- Am I being a good steward of what God has blessed me with?
- What does it mean to be generous?
- What are some ways that we can be generous in our daily life?
