WHO ARE WE TO HONOUR?

1. Parents
2. Those in authority
3. Pastor’s and Church Leaders

“Honouring; esteems and lifts up”

“Dishonouring; devalues and tears down”

“Respect is earned; Honour is given”

Key Questions

- So is honour due anyone? Should we put value on any man or woman, or should we honour God alone? What does the Bible say?
- What does God say about honouring others? What qualifiers does He give before honour is given?

START PRAYING: The Key Issue of Honour

We live in a culture and age of dishonour. If we are not careful, we can begin to think and talk the same dishonouring way. Nobody is safe from attack or being dishonoured. It is time to see what God says about honouring others—something very different from what the world teaches us.

So first we humble ourselves, then give honour and respect even those who might appear to be unworthy of honour and respect. The result? God the Highest, the Supreme Being in the entire universe, will personally bestow honour and glory on those who have obeyed this and other commands. This is God’s way: The more we give, the more we receive. The more honour we give, the more honour we will also receive.

Tough as it may be, we should make it our aim to honour everyone—all the time.
