

Show Notes

Show Summary:

Today on 'Off The Leash' we're talking to Mary Oberdier of Chase'n Tails Pet Care, LLC. We'll get to know Mary and her incredible entrepreneurial journey!

Guest Bio:

Mary decided to start her own professional pet sitting business after working in banking her whole life. She took a year to prepare by researching other professional pet sitting businesses and joining the National Association of Professional Pet Sitters. She became certified, insured and bonded. She named her business after her beloved dog Chase who she had recently lost. She knew what it was like to try to find someone she could trust to stay in her home with Chase when she traveled and she wanted to be able to offer pet parents peace of mind when they worked long hours or traveled. She has built a reputable business with great customer service and pet care. A couple of years into her business, she was missing co-workers and a sense of community so she went online looking for other professional pet sitters in her area and started a local networking group and Facebook page. She hasn't look back!
