

Structure and Design in Regular Devotions

Selected Scriptures

1. Scriptural Principles for the Importance of Personal Attendance to God's Word
 - A. God Has Spoken (Heb. 1:1)
 - B. God's Word is Clear (Mk. 12:26)
 - C. God's Word is Valuable (Ps. 19:10)
 - D. God's Word is Necessary for Life (Dt. 8:3; Lk. 4:4)
2. Biblical Prescriptions for Diligent Study
 - A. Every Household is Responsible for Instruction (Dt. 6:1-25)
 - B. A Kingly Discipleship Plan (Dt. 17:18-20)
3. A Biblical Perspective on Scriptural Memorization (Ps. 119:9-11)
4. A Biblical Model for a Disciplined Habit of Prayer (Lk. 5:16)
5. Application:
 - A. Individual Devotions
We are a community of individuals who believe and confess that the Bible is God's Word and that it is the only infallible and true witness that we have from God to which we can direct our attention and devotion. We further believe that with the aid of the Holy Spirit, we can both understand and be conformed to what the Bible says.
 - B. Family Devotions
The plan for Israel was not only to have a central place of worship and official leadership, but that every household - every father - would be intentional and disciplined to instruct his children in truth of who God is and what He has done.
 - C. Two Big Hindrances
 - I. When?
 - II. How?
